

Fr. Syl Taube, Pastor
He was ordained in 1964.
He has been the Pastor at St.
Columban since July 1, 2000.
He is set to retire July 1, 2008. . . (alot of other type of fishing will be taking place we suspect!)

Previous pastorships: Holy Ghost, Detroit; St. Joseph, Monroe.

20 Years as Associate Director of the Family Life Office for the Archdiocese of Detroit. Fr. Syl served as Chaplain for Detroit Worldwide Marriage Encounter and Detroit National Marriage Encounter. He was a Chaplain for many years to Bethany, a ministry to divorced and separated. Also, a Chaplain for many years for NAIM, a ministry for the widowed. Brought Retrouvaille, a ministry for troubled marriages to Detroit. He has served on the International Board of Retrouvaille for 5 years. For 3 years, he has served as Chaplain to the North American Conference of Separated and Divorced Catholics.

Regarding ministry. . .

"Imperfect people can love imperfect people because God does and God empowers us."
